ANGELCON

AngelCon 2025 Investor Panel

Join us to hear from three Angel Investors as they share their firsthand experiences from AngelCon 2025!

Angel investors—also known as private, seed, or angel funders—provide critical financial backing to startups or entrepreneurs, typically in exchange for equity in the business. Although AngelCon is best known as an annual pitch competition, the journey to becoming an investor is actually a year-long training experience culminating in this exciting event.

In this panel discussion, AngelCon 2025 investors Jeff Erramouspe, Wendy Castleman and Mike O'Brien will reflect on their journey, discuss key factors they look for in startups, and host an interactive Q&A session with attendees.
